

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. (Genesis 50:2)

In Genesis chapter 37, we find the story of Joseph. The wonderful thing about the life of Joseph is that the bible states repeatedly that “God was with him.” When God is with you, no matter what the enemy (satan) tries to do to you, God is able to turn the situation around for the best interest of his people.

To recap briefly Joseph’s life, he was hated by his brothers, sold into slavery, lied on by Potiphar’s wife, thrown into prison and totally forgotten about by someone he helped in prison who promised not to forget him. Yet, everything that was meant for evil and was meant to hurt him, God turned it around for good and through Joseph, many people who would have otherwise died of starvation, were fed and survived the famine of that day. So why worry? Be happy. If God is for us, who can be against us?

By: Deborah A. Rolle

*Please note that although the name satan should be capitalized, we prefer to be grammatically incorrect rather to give him the honor of capitalizing his name.