

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence. (Genesis 50:25)

Joseph lived to the age of 110 but never had the opportunity to witness the great exodus from Egypt. Although he did not witness it, he had faith to believe that the God he served would one day deliver the children of Israel out of bondage. He had experienced the power and provision of God and he knew that nothing was impossible with God.

Not only that, but he loved God so much that he did not even want his bones left in such an ungodly environment. He gave commandment to have his bones carried away when the deliverance came.

Wouldn't it be great if all of us as believers would desire to represent Christ in such a way, that we would not even want our decayed bones associated with anyplace or anything that did not have the fragrance of God?

If that type of loyalty to God was manifested in every believer, we would be able to turn our cities upside down for the glory of God.

Let us represent and not misrepresent our great God and win the world for Christ!
