

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13:8)

One of the things that is certain in life is that life is filled with uncertainties. It seems that things are always changing. There was a time when bad meant bad. Bad now means good. There was a time when the word “friend” meant, an associate. It now could possibly mean someone that you are involved with intimately, even though they are introduced as, “my friend.”

Well, it’s wonderful to know that Jesus never changes. He is the same yesterday, today and forever. His character will always be holy, pure and righteous. He will always be someone that you can talk to and share your most personal thoughts, with no fear of them being repeated. He is someone that you can totally depend on. He will always be one that is able to do exceedingly, abundantly, above all that we can ask or think of him. Therefore, when life’s little unexpected surprises come into our lives and cause our situations to change, we can rejoice because we know that in a changing world, we serve a changeless God.

By: Deborah A. Rolle